I understand that participation in the above mentioned event, activity or program, as with any exercise or dance class, could include activities that involve inherent risks, dangers and hazards both known and unknown, that are associated with unique movement patterns and skills. I also understand that social distancing policies will be in effect for all classes and that if I am not adhering to those policies I may be asked to leave. I understand that Puddle of Mud Productions and it's instructors will do everything in their power to prevent the spread of infection by laying out social distancing policies and procedures but take responsibility for myself and the choice to attend class(es).
